(b) Upon receipt of the Order Change Notice, Seller shall immediately proceed with the change to the Order as directed by Buyer. If any change is the sole cause of a material increase or decrease in the cost of, or the delivery time for, the supply of any Products under the affected Order, then Seller (in the case of an increase) or Buyer (in the case of a decrease) shall be entitled to an equitable adjustment in the purchase price or delivery schedule or both, as applicable. Seller must assert its claim for such equitable adjustment in writing to Buyer within twenty-one (21) days from the date of the Order Change Notice, or Seller’s claim for such equitable adjustment is thereby waived. If Seller asserts an equitable adjustment claim to Buyer, Seller shall demonstrate, in reasonable detail, the impact of such change on the cost or delivery time of the Product(s) alleged to be so affected and that all of such impact was caused by such change. In every case, Seller shall immediately proceed with the change as directed by the Order Change Notice.

(c) Notwithstanding section 4(b), with respect to delivery schedule changes only, if Buyer provided Seller with at least four (4) weeks of notice in its Order Change Notice, then Seller shall perform such schedule changes at no cost to Buyer.

(b) If Buyer cancels a Stop Work Notice or if the period therein or in any agreed extension thereof expires, then Seller shall resume work under this Order, and Buyer and Seller will agree upon a reasonable adjustment in the delivery schedule, which shall be approximately the time then remaining to fulfill this Order, on a Product by Product basis, when the Stop Work Notice was issued. In no event shall such adjustment exceed 30% more than such amount of time. A Stop Work Notice shall not affect the applicable pricing for any of the Products in this Order.

6. Termination for Convenience. (a) Buyer may, by written notice to Seller, terminate for Buyer’s convenience the whole or any part of this Order. A partial termination of this Order has no effect on the portion of this Order not terminated.

(b) Upon receipt of any such notice of termination, the Seller shall: (i) immediately cease all work under the portion of this Order so terminated, including but not limited to the further manufacture and procurement of materials for the fulfillment of the terminated portion of this Order’ (ii) unless instructed to the contrary in the termination notice, within twenty (20) days after receipt of such notice, deliver to Buyer all Products that are the subject of the termination, whether such Products are then completed or are partially completed and all Buyer Materials and Seller Materials, in each case, to the extent associated with such terminated portion of the Order; and within thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice, provide Buyer with a report describing the status of all Products (including the degree to which each Product was finished), the inventory and procured cost of Seller Materials and the inventory of Buyer Materials (if any), in each case, at the time of receipt of the termination notice.

(c) Promptly after receipt of the report issued in accordance with section 6(b), Buyer and Seller will discuss, and Seller shall be entitled to, an equitable termination fee for the terminated portion of this Order equal to the lesser of: (i) the total price of the Products that were the subject of the terminated portion of this Order and (ii) the sum of (a) the applicable price of any fully completed Products requested by Buyer to be delivered to Seller and so delivered, (b) Seller’s actual direct cost associated with all completed Products not requested to be delivered to Buyer, (c) Seller’s actual direct cost associated with all works in process at the time of termination, and (d) Seller’s actual direct cost associated with all Seller Materials not coverable. The Seller shall have ten (10) days (or more if authorized in writing from the Buyer) from the date of receipt of such notice in which to cure the default or to satisfy the Buyer that such default shall be cured within a period of time acceptable to the Buyer. Upon failure to cure the default, Buyer may give the Seller written notice of termination of all or part of this Order.

(b) Where the Seller becomes bankrupt or insolvent, makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or takes the benefit of any statute relating to bankrupt or insolvent debtors, or where a receiver is appointed under a debt instrument or a receiving order is made against the Seller, or an order is made or a resolution passed for the winding up of the Seller, the Buyer may, upon a receiver is appointed under a debt instrument or a receiving order is made against the Seller, or an order is made or a resolution passed for the winding up of the Seller, the Buyer may, upon giving written notice to the Seller, immediately terminate for default the whole or any part of this Order.

(c) Upon the giving of a notice provided for section 7 (A) or (B), the Seller shall have no claim for further payment for the portion of the Order terminated other than as provided in this Clause 7, but Seller shall be liable to the Buyer for all losses and damages which may be suffered by the Buyer by reason of the default, including any increase in the costs incurred by the Buyer in procuring the Products from another source. Nothing in this Clause 7 affects any obligation of the Buyer under law to mitigate damages, and Seller shall proceed with the portion of this Order not terminated.

(d) With respect to the portion of this Order terminated for default, the Buyer may require the Seller to transfer the title and deliver, as directed by the Buyer, any (i) completed Products, and (ii) Seller Materials that the Seller and its subcontractors have specifically produced or acquired for such portion of this Order. Upon direction of the Buyer, the Seller shall also protect and preserve all Buyer Materials in its possession.

(e) The Buyer shall pay the Order price for completed Products delivered and accepted in accordance with section 7(d). The Seller and Buyer shall agree on a reasonable amount of payment for Seller Materials delivered and accepted. Failure to agree will be a dispute to be resolved pursuant to section 21. The Buyer may withhold from these amounts any sum the Buyer determines to be necessary to protect the Buyer against losses incurred due to Seller's default, including outstanding liens or claims of former lien holders against Seller, and the Products and Buyer's estimate of excess re-procurement costs due Buyer.

8. Excusable Delay. (a) If a Delay Event occurs, the party that is prevented by such event from performing any one or more obligations under this Order ("Affected Party") will be excused from performing those obligations, on condition that (i) the Affected Party used reasonable efforts to perform those obligations, (ii) the Affected Party's inability to perform those obligations is not due to its failure to take reasonable measures to protect itself against the event or circumstance giving rise to the Delay Event, and (iii) the Affected Party complies with its obligations under section 8(c).

(b) For purposes herein, "Delay Event" means, with respect to a party, any event or circumstance, regardless of whether it was foreseeable, that was not caused by that party and that prevents a party from complying with any of its obligations under this Order, except that a Delay Event will not include a lack of financial resources of the Seller or its subcontractors, labor disturbances (including strikes and lockouts) of the Seller or its subcontractors, or any other breach by Seller or any of its subcontractors not caused by a Delay Event.

(c) Upon the occurrence of a Delay Event, the Affected Party shall promptly notify the other party of such occurrence, its effect on performance, and how long the Affected Party expects the Delay Event to last. The Affected Party shall update the information as reasonably necessary or requested by Buyer. During a Delay Event, the Affected Party shall use reasonable efforts to limit its damages and damages to the other party and to resume its performance under the Order as soon as possible. However, after a Seller's Delay Event has continued for a period of thirty (30) days, the Buyer may terminate this Order or any portion thereof in accordance with section 7.

9. Buyer Materials. (a) Except as otherwise provided herein, Seller shall not use, reproduce, or disclose for the benefit of any party other than Buyer, any Buyer Materials. Seller shall not use the Buyer Materials to produce or manufacture any items other than the Products, without prior written authorization from Buyer.

(b) Buyer shall at all times retain title to Buyer Materials. Seller shall bear the risk of loss, damage or destruction of the Buyer Materials. If any Buyer Materials are lost, damaged, or destroyed while in Seller's possession, Seller shall promptly replace or repair such at no cost to Buyer. Upon Buyer request, Seller shall provide Buyer with an inventory of any Buyer Materials in Seller's possession. Upon termination or completion of this Order and at no cost to Buyer, Seller shall return all Buyer Materials to Buyer, unless otherwise directed by Buyer in writing.

(c) As Buyer Materials may be unique or proprietary and monetary damages would be inadequate to compensate Buyer for any Seller breach of this section 9, in addition to any other remedies available to Buyer under this Order, at law, or in equity, Buyer shall be entitled to seek injunctive relief to enforce the terms of this section.

(d) With respect to invoices for tooling to be paid for by Buyer, Buyer shall not be obligated to process or issue payment for such invoices until Buyer has accepted Products produced from such tools. As applicable to this Order, Buyer shall charge Seller for all Buyer Materials that are lost, damaged, or destroyed while in the possession of Seller at replacement value, and Seller shall pay for such in accordance with the payment terms herein, or as otherwise specified in the Order.

10. Intellectual Property. (a) Any copyright, trademark, trade secret, software, data, idea, concept, process, formula, invention, system, report or other intellectual property resulting from any Seller work performed for this Order, shall be the sole property of Buyer. To the maximum extent permitted by law, any and all of the foregoing that constitutes copyrightable subject matter shall be deemed "work made for hire" under 17 U.S.C. §101. To the extent any of the foregoing is not deemed a "work made for hire," then Seller agrees to assign and hereby assigns to Buyer any interest Seller may have in such intellectual property and Seller and its employees and contractors hereby waive any economic or moral rights relating to such intellectual property. Seller shall, and shall cause its employees and contractors to, promptly execute and deliver to Buyer any documentation reasonably requested by Buyer to further document ownership consistent with this Clause.

(b) With respect to any software contained within or required to use the Products, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the parties, Seller grants to Buyer a fully paid-up, worldwide, irrevocable and non-terminable license under all intellectual property rights owned by or licensed to Seller or any of its affiliates in such software and its related documentation, including, without limitation the rights to reproduce, distribute, create derivative works, display publicly, make, use, sell, offer for sale and import such software and documentation, in whatever form provided or stored, and products and processes incorporating or made using such software or documentation. The foregoing license includes the right to sublicense to affiliates and contractors of Buyer. Such software and documentation constitutes "intellectual property" as defined by 11 U.S.C. §101 and Buyer is entitled to all of the benefits of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code in connection therewith, including to the extent not in the possession of Buyer, the right to request and receive the source code form of such software to the extent reasonably requested by Buyer to exercise the rights licensed to it hereunder.

(c) With respect to any Seller Materials that constitute copyrighted subject matter, Seller grants to Buyer a fully paid- up, worldwide, irrevocable, and non-terminable license under all intellectual property rights owned by or licensed to Seller or any of its affiliates in such subject matter, including without limitation, the rights to reproduce, distribute, create derivative works of, display and perform publicly such subject matter, in whatever form it is kept, stored or provided. Such license includes the right to sublicense to affiliates and contractors of Buyer.

(d) Buyer grants to Seller a license under all of Buyer's intellectual property rights in the Buyer Materials to use such materials to the limited extent strictly necessary for Seller to supply the Products to Buyer in accordance with this Order. Except as provided in the preceding sentence, Buyer does not grant to Seller any rights under any of Seller's or its Affiliates' intellectual property rights, by implication, estoppel or otherwise, and Seller reserves all such rights for itself.

rights for itself.

11. Quality Control, Audit, and Inspection. (a) In addition to any specific quality assurance requirements stated in this Order, Seller shall provide and maintain a Quality Control System in accordance with the revision of ISO--9001 or AS/EN-9100 in effect as of the date of this Order or maintain a system approved by the Buyer, which includes quality systems for Seller's design requirements, if applicable. Seller's system shall also be in compliance with the requirements of the Seller's civil airworthiness authority and, as applicable, the Buyer's and Buyer's customers' quality requirements and specifications referenced in this Order.

(b) Buyer, Buyer's customers, U.S. Government or other regulatory agencies shall have the right at any time, upon reasonable notice, to: (a) conduct surveys and perform surveillance of Seller and Seller subcontractors; and (b) access and perform any type of inspection, test, audit or investigation at Seller's or Seller's subcontractor's premises, including manufacturing and test locations, and to spot check the Products, tools, equipment, molds, and manufacturing facilities to verify compliance with the requirements of this Order, or for any other purpose as indicated by Buyer's customer or regulatory authority that is in connection with the design, development, certification, manufacture, sale, use, or support of the Products. Seller shall provide appropriate facilities and assistance as reasonably necessary to support these activities at no cost to Buyer. Any corrective action reasonably requested by Buyer, Buyer's customers, U.S. Government, or other agency shall be implemented by Seller at no cost to Buyer.

(c) All Products are subject to inspection by Buyer at destination, notwithstanding any payment or prior inspection at Seller's point of shipment. The inspection will be made within a reasonable time, not to exceed ninety (90) calendar days after receipt of the Products. Buyer shall notify Seller if any Products received by Buyer are rejected, and such Products may be returned to Seller at Seller's risk and expense at Buyer's discretion. Inspection and tests by Buyer do not relieve the Seller of responsibility for costs of additional testing or for defects or other failures to meet this Order's requirements, including but not limited to latent defects or gross mistakes amounting to fraud.

(d) Seller is responsible to ensure that it is working to the latest version of all applicable specifications and other quality related documents. Seller shall notify Buyer of any defect or nonconformance related to the Product. However, Seller shall not ship any Product containing any defect or nonconformance without the written Buyer's written consent.

(e) Seller shall have an effective program for investigation, corrective action, and follow-up for rejections initiated by the Seller or Buyer. When the Buyer discovers any discrepancy for which the Seller is responsible, the Buyer may forward a request for corrective action to the Seller for action and response. The Seller's response shall be returned to the Buyer within Buyer's requested time frame, and shall include the causes of each discrepancy, the positive corrective action(s) taken to prevent its recurrence, and the corrective action effective date.

(f) Seller is responsible for complying with quality system requirements noted herein or on the face of any Order and for meeting quality performance expectations. Any use of statistical techniques by Seller to determine any Product inspection, acceptance, or other technical criteria must be approved by Buyer in writing. Seller will ensure that its employees are trained and aware of their contributions to Product quality and conformity as well as overall Product safety. Failure to comply with quality system requirements or to achieve an acceptable quality performance level may result in an on-site audit or additional source inspection oversight being initiated by Buyer, at Seller's expense. Buyer may debit Seller accounts to compensate for inspection or related activities that take place as a result of Buyer directed inspections, including source inspections being by-passed by the Seller.

(g) Seller shall maintain quality records including traceability throughout all stages of manufacturing. No quality records shall be destroyed without the written consent of Buyer or its designee.

(h) Seller shall disclose all of its suppliers and subcontractors to Buyer and shall not

Buyer may withhold or withdraw its approval of any such supplier or subcontractor at any time. Seller's suppliers or subcontractors may also be required to be approved by Buyer's customer(s) or end user(s), as applicable. The Seller shall ensure that all necessary requirements of the Order and these Terms are flowed down to Seller's supplier(s)/subcontractor(s) as required. The Seller shall immediately notify Buyer upon any change to the following in relation to all Products: (i) Seller's supplier; (ii) Seller's subcontractor; or (iii) Seller's facility location.

12. Warranty. (a) Seller warrants that all Products delivered under this Order: will, for thirty-six (36) months after delivery to Buyer's customers, conform to the specifications, drawings, samples, examples, trials, demonstrations, representations and descriptions thereof furnished to or by Buyer; are merchantable, of good material and workmanship and free from defects in design and manufacture (to the extent that Seller is responsible for such design); are suitable for the purpose intended; and are free and clear of all liens and security interests. Any Product delivered under this Order not meeting all of the foregoing criteria are "Defective Products."

(b) In addition to any other remedy Buyer may have, Buyer may return Defective Products to Seller at Seller's expense. At Buyer's option and direction for any returned Defective Product, Seller shall promptly repair, replace, or issue Buyer a credit for, any returned Defective Product. Seller shall provide such repair, replacement, or credit no later than twenty (20) days from Buyer's notice thereof. Buyer may offset from any amounts due to Seller from Buyer, the amount of actual freight charges incurred in shipping Defective Products between Buyer and Seller. Buyer may also perform any necessary repair to Defective Products at its own facility and charge and offset the reasonable cost thereof to Seller.

13. Books and Records. Buyer shall have the right to audit all pertinent books and records of Seller and to inspect Seller's facilities to verify compliance with any requirements of the Order. Seller shall provide authorized representatives of Buyer reasonable access to Seller's books, records and data that permits the adequate evaluation of cost data, direct materials, labor hours and incorporated rates used to arrive at the price of Products or any of Seller's proposals for costs or prices pursuant to sections 4, 6, 7, or 9. At Buyer's request, Seller shall provide copies of collective labor agreements to which Seller is a party, if any, and Seller's audited company financial statements. Seller shall keep and maintain all books and records relating to the supply of Products hereunder for at least seven (7) years or such longer time required by applicable law or specified in this Order. Quality records shall be maintained in accordance with section 11 or as otherwise required by Buyer.

14. Prices, Payments, and Discounts. (a) Buyer shall make payments within sixty (60) days from the later of: (i) the acceptance date of the Products, or (ii) Buyer's receipt of an invoice that conforms to the requirements of this Order. Seller shall clearly state all discount terms (if any) on the face of each invoice. Payment discounts will also be calculated in accordance with the above.

(b) Buyer may set-off any amounts due to it from Seller hereunder against any payments that are due to Seller from Buyer under the applicable Order or any other Order or agreement between Buyer and Seller. Buyer may also withhold from payment to Seller all reasonable amounts sufficient to reimburse Buyer for any loss, damage, expense, cost, or liability relating to any of Seller's failures to comply with any requirement of this Order or any other Order or agreement between Buyer and Seller.

15. Invoicing, Packing, and Shipping. (a) Seller shall provide separate invoices for each shipment under an Order. On such invoice, Seller shall clearly indicate Order number, line item number(s), quantity, unit price and extended value. At the time specified on the face of this Order, or if not specified, then on the date of shipment, Seller shall mail one copy of the invoice to the location specified for invoices on the face of this Order.

Order, or if not specified, then on the date of shipment, Seller shall mail one copy of the invoice to the location specified for invoices on the face of this Order.

(b) Seller shall comply with the shipping and routing instructions shown on this Order. Premium transportation will be paid by Buyer only when specifically authorized by Buyer. If delays caused by the Seller result in the need for expedited transportation, the additional costs for the expedited transportation is the sole responsibility of the Seller. All shipments entirely within the U.S.A. shall be FCA Buyer's specified destination (Incoterms 2010) and all international shipments shall be DDP (Incoterms 2010) Buyer's specified destination, unless otherwise specified on the face of this Order.

(c) Seller shall include a packing list each shipment under this Order. Seller shall clearly mark the location of the packing slip on the container and cause the complete Order number to appear on all shipping documents.

(d) Seller shall identify each Product container of each shipment with the Order number, part number, and quantity of each part number. If multiple Orders or Products are combined into one container, Seller shall separately package each separate Order or Product inside the container and each package shall be identified as to Order number, part number, and quantity of each part number.

(e) Seller shall suitably package and prepare all Products for shipment to withstand normal transportation and stocking functions. Seller's containers and packaging shall be in compliance with best commercial practices and any special requirements indicated or referenced on the face of this Order.

(f) If required in this Order, Seller shall include all test reports, x-rays, certificates, or other supporting documents in each applicable shipment.

(g) Seller shall not combine shipments destined for different facilities or destinations on the same bill of lading or in the same container.

(h) Seller shall mark Products in such a manner as to be readily identifiable with the part number reflected on this Order. If applicable, Seller shall package all kits, assemblies, and all parts consisting of multiple Products (e.g. hardware, pins, gaskets, etc.) as a complete unit and so identified. If individually packaged, Seller shall mark such package as a single unit of the applicable part number. Seller shall separate single Products too small to be separately packaged or identified into lots for packaging, and tagged or bagged accordingly. Seller shall apply all proper markings corresponding to the Order description and part number to all tags and bags for handling and storage purposes.

(i) If required by Buyer, Seller will provide bar coded shipping labels with each shipment.

(j) Seller shall include a certificate of origin and country of manufacture and a certificate of compliance stating that the Products conform in all respects to their applicable warranties, with each shipment. Seller shall cause all such certificates to be signed by its authorized quality representative.

If Products are received more than five (5) days ahead of specified schedule, Buyer may either keep the Products and make payment as if the delivery was made per the specified delivery or return the Products to Seller at Seller's expense. The delivery dates contained in this Order are the dates that the Products are required on dock at the specified destination. In no event shall Buyer's acceptance of any early delivery accelerate any payment obligations of the Buyer.

(b) Time is of the essence in performing this Order. If Seller experiences or anticipates any delay in performing this Order, Seller shall immediately notify Buyer in writing of such

(b) Time is of the essence in performing this Order. If Seller experiences or anticipates any delay in performing this Order, Seller shall immediately notify Buyer in writing of such delay, its expected duration, the reasons thereof, the action being taken to mitigate such cause of non-delivery and when on-schedule status will be regained. Neither such notification nor an acknowledgment by Buyer shall constitute a waiver of this Order's specified delivery schedule or of any rights or remedies of Buyer under this Order. The delivery schedule shall not be modified unless the parties do so in writing or as otherwise provided in Clause 4. Seller shall be liable for any damages resulting from a delay in delivery, and Seller shall, at its expense, take whatever reasonable action is necessary, with or without Buyer's request, to meet such schedules as set forth herein or to recover to the maximum extent possible any delay in meeting such schedules. Such reasonable action by Seller shall include, but not be limited to, expedited shipment at Seller's expense.

(c) In addition and without prejudice to any of Buyer's other rights or remedies provided herein, Buyer may assess the following liquidated damages against Seller: (i) $200.00 (USD) for each nonconforming Product delivered to Buyer under this Order; and (ii) $100.00 (USD) for each day of delay for each Order that is not delivered by its specified delivery date. Buyer may charge Seller for such liquidated damages automatically as a debit memo issued to Seller's account. These liquidated damage amounts are only intended to compensate Buyer for certain reasonable, but difficult to calculate costs, expenses, and other damages directly resulting from Seller's failure to perform hereunder and shall be without prejudice to any of Buyer's rights to recover any other costs, expenses, or damages for which Buyer is otherwise entitled.

17. Assignment. Except as provided in this section, Seller may not assign this Order, any interest under the under, or any claim under the under without the prior written consent of Buyer. If Seller assigns this Order without Buyer's consent, such assignment is ineffective and void. Buyer's consent does not relieve Seller of its obligations to comply fully with the requirements of this Order. Seller may, without Buyer's consent, assign the rights to be paid monies due or to become due to a financing institution if the following conditions are met: (i) Buyer shall continue to have the right to exercise any and all of its rights under, settle any and all claims arising out of, and enter into amendments hereto, without notice to or consent of the assignee; (ii) the entire amount of said monies is assigned to a single assignee and (iii) Buyer is given notice of the assignment and all invoices submitted by Seller contain adequate reference to the assignment.

Seller shall not, and shall cause its subcontractors, suppliers and agents not to, without Buyer's prior written consent: (i) use Buyer's name, photographs, logos, trademarks, or any other identifying information in any such medium; (ii) use (except to communicate with Buyer or its affiliates) any internet domain names, metatags or electronic mail addresses of the Buyer or the name of any product or service for which Buyer owns the trademark; or (iii) provide a link to any domain name or internet address registered to Buyer or any of its Affiliates.

(b) The parties shall treat all information exchanged under this Order in accordance with any applicable confidentiality, non-disclosure, or equivalently named agreement between the parties effective as of the date of this Order. If no such agreement exists, then Seller shall not, without the prior written consent of Buyer: (i) disclose any Buyer Materials or other information provided by Buyer to Seller in connection with this Order to any third party, except to the limited extent required by applicable law and then only pursuant to a protective order that provides suitable restriction on disclosure, or (ii) use any of the foregoing other than as strictly necessary to fulfill Seller's obligations to Buyer under this Order.

(c) Anything owned by Buyer in accordance with section 10 is the confidential information of Buyer, regardless of whether such is marked accordingly or whether it originated from Buyer or Seller. Seller shall not use any such Buyer confidential information for any purpose other than fulfillment of Seller's obligations to Buyer under this Order or any other order or agreement between Seller and Buyer from Buyer or Seller. Seller shall not use any such Buyer confidential information for any purpose other than fulfillment of Seller's obligations to Buyer under this Order or any other order or agreement between Seller and Buyer.

(d) Seller shall not disclose any of Buyer's confidential information to any person or entity other than Seller's employees that have a need-to-know such information for the foregoing purpose, unless otherwise agreed to in writing with Buyer.

19. Indemnification.
